

2000s Nostalgia

Sierra Marasco

Acrylic on canvas

18"x24"

I enjoy making pieces through a nostalgic lens. My aim is to turn the memories of past items into art. I want the audience to have an additional way to appreciate a nostalgic item, outside of the item itself. As the audience views this painting, they may be reminded of childhood happiness—about a time in their life when there was less to worry about.
