

The Butterflies in the Grove

Lizzy Figueroa

Digital Photography

These works are a collection of photography of both tropical and North American butterflies. Butterflies have always been very important to me as they represent freedom. This portfolio is meant to represent the freedom associated with going to college.

