

Heir

Connor Boylan

Oil on canvas, 28 x 22 inches

Heir is an intimate shrine-like arrangement conveying the moral dilemma of starting a family in the future. Rabbit motifs allude to the prototypical family fantasy versus the challenging realities created in the process by expensive and unequally accessible systems in place for parents and the burdens bestowed to some children by virtue of being born in the modern day.

